

Elizabethville Area Bicentennial Committee

PO Box 465 ★ Elizabethville, PA 17023

www.elizabethville2017.org

It is not every day that you help celebrate a 200th birthday, but on August 19th, 2017, the town of Elizabethville, formally known as Benderstettle, will reach this milestone. Elizabethville is a small town with a rich heritage located in Northern Dauphin County, nestled in the beautiful mountains of Central Pennsylvania. It truly is the “Star of the Valley”.

Plans are already underway to commemorate this occasion, and the Elizabethville Area Bicentennial Committee cordially invites you to be part of our grand celebration parade.

The parade route will follow the Historic streets of Elizabethville and the surrounding area and will be approximately 1.7 miles in length.

Entries can reflect your imagination in any way. We encourage you to brainstorm with your friends and neighbors and surprise us with your ingenuity. We hope that you will join us in making this a truly awesome bicentennial parade. There are lots of exciting events planned and we know that you will enjoy being a part of it all. Any unpaid parade entries in our parade will be judged for a monetary award

To join us, please visit our Website at www.elizabethville2017.org to obtain a complete parade information packet, or, if you prefer, please contact the Elizabethville Area Bicentennial Parade Committee via E-mail at eabcparade@gmail.com, or write to us at PO Box 465, Elizabethville, PA 17023, and a packet will be sent to you.

We hope to make this an event to remember and look forward to your participation.

Elizabethville Area Bicentennial Parade Committee